YASMINE MARIE-ADEL HIDER, )

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE AND WAIVER OF SPEEDY TRIAL

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (h)(7)(B)(vi), Yasmine Marie-Adel Hider, by and through her attorney, gives notice of her waiver of rights under the Speedy Trial Act and moves this Honorable Court without opposition to continue the current trial setting of February 6, 2023, and as grounds therefore states as follows:

1. On December 15, 2022, Ms. Hider was arraigned on a four-count indictment in the instant case alleging counts of murder in the first degree, kidnapping, robbery, and discharging a firearm in relation to a crime of violence. (Doc. 1)
2. The Scheduling Order (Doc. 13) set this case on the February 6, 2023, trial docket. The order also established the Rule 17.1 plea notification deadline for January 17, 2023.
3. The discovery in this case is voluminous. To date, undersigned counsel has received over 65 gigabytes of discovery including documents, videos, audio recordings, photos, and mobile phone extractions. Undersigned counsel requires significant time to process and review the discovery with Ms. Hider.
4. Despite the exercise of due diligence, the Federal Public Defender's Office requires additional time to complete its investigation, to confer with Ms. Hider, and to prepare the constitutionally required defense.

5. In light of outstanding issues that must be resolved prior to proceeding to trial, Ms. Hider asserts that the ends of justice is served by granting a continuance and outweigh the best interest of the public and Ms. Hider in a speedy trial at the current trial date.
6. Ms. Hider has been informed of her right to a speedy trial under the Speedy Trial Act and she knowingly, freely, and voluntarily waive her rights under the same, as evidenced by her signature below. Ms. Hider gives notice of her waiver of her rights under the Speedy Trial Act from this date forward.
7. Requests for a continuance are addressed at the sound discretion of the trial court. United States v. Darby, 744 F.2d 1508, 1521 (11th Cir. 1984), reh. denied 749 F.2d 733, cert. denied 471 U.S. 1100 (1985). A continuance in order to allow defendant, “the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation” for trial is one of the factors considered significantly by the Speedy Trial Act. United States v. Davenport, 935 F.2d 1223, 1235 (11th Cir. 1991); 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv). The Eleventh Circuit has repeatedly recognized that a continuance in order to provide adequate preparation by counsel serves the ends of justice. United States v. Goetz, 826 F.2d 1025, 1028 (11th Cir. 1987) (upholding, against speedy trial claim, continuance of eighty days to allow new counsel to prepare for trial); United States v. Elkins, 795 F.2d 919, 924 (11th Cir. 1986) cert. denied 479 U.S. 952 (1986) (same); United States v. Sarro, 742 F.2d 1286, 1300 (11th Cir. 1984), reh. denied 751 F.2d 394 (1984).
8. Counsel for Ms. Hider has spoken with the Assistant United States Attorney in this case, and the Government does not oppose Ms. Hider’s request for continuance.

Accordingly, Ms. Hider requests that this Honorable Court grant the requested relief and continue the trial setting, as well as all related settings and deadlines, by no fewer than 120 days.
